My Inbox....

Welcome to the final Gazette for 2017.

The year has flown by, but it has in no way been short of memorable moments, from the flooding of the Blackwood River in February to the 99th Dinninup Show in November, and many more in between.

As it always does, our community has banded together in times of need and we have said goodbye to some icons of our community.

But the year is not quite over, with plenty of activities still to come during December, including a number of Christmas and end of year functions.

And remember to 'Buy Up in Boyup' when doing your Christmas shopping. We are so fortunate to have a range of outlets in Boyup Brook where you can buy some great presents! These businesses all support the community in various ways throughout the year, so let's return the favour and support them.

Wishing you all a Happy Christmas, restful break and all the best for a successful 2018. Stay safe and take care if travelling.

Cheers, Jodi

Banking Benefits Community Groups

Ten of Boyup Brook's community groups have received a boost to their organisations as recipients of the 2017 Bendigo Bank Community Grants program.

$10,000 was gifted to the Boyup Brook community from the Collie and Districts Community Bank to distribute to various local projects to demonstrate the rewards that community banking can provide. Over the past sixteen years, almost $6 million has been returned to the community from the Collie branch, as a share of the profit made from banking business.

All ten organisations were represented at a grant presentation function on November 24 and were appreciative of the support they received.

Boyup Brook Community Resource Centre and Bendigo Bank Agency Manager, Jodi Nield said "It was very satisfying to distribute these funds into the community and we look forward to being able to continue this into the future." She added "It's pretty amazing to realise that just by having your banking business with the Boyup Brook Bendigo Bank Agency, you can help support important community projects."

The 2017 grant program recipients are:

- Boyup Brook Arts & Craft Club - Women's Shed Fit Out
- Boyup Brook Bowling Club - Arena Signage
- Boyup Brook Community Mental Health Action Team - Community Mental Health Project Officer
- Boyup Brook Community Resource Centre - Boyup Brook Art Awards
- Boyup Brook DHS P&C - Flying Start to Literacy
- Boyup Brook Golf Club - Clubhouse Maintenance
- Boyup Brook Lions Club - Lions Park Beautification
- Boyup Brook Tennis Club - Junior Support Program
- Country Music Club of Boyup Brook - Festival Program advertising
- Mayanup Horse and Pony Club - Show jumping Promotional Package and Tracking Upgrade

To see how your banking can contribute to the next round of grant funds, please call into the Boyup Brook Bendigo Bank Agency at the CRC or phone 9765 1169.

The Police Star Medal is an honour not all recipients live to receive. Thankfully, however, Boyup Brook resident, Matt Cole, is alive, and recently accepted his Police Star Medal from WA Police District Superintendent, Mick Sutherland.

The Police Star Medal recognises Western Australian police officers who are killed or seriously injured at work. It acknowledges the unpredictable dangers of policing and the sacrifices police officers make to our communities.

On October 31, as he emerged from the depths of a battle with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), Matt Cole had the Police Star Medal added to a row of medals earned during his 30-year policing career.

"We are very, very proud of you and you will be part of our police family forever," Superintendent Sutherland said as he pinned the medal to Mr Cole's "civvies" shirt.

Mr Cole retired from the WA Police in February 2016, as a result of significant trauma associated with a fatal traffic accident. "Sadly my career ended not the way I wanted it to, but I've learnt the hard way that 31 years on the road isn't that good for your health," Mr Cole said in his acceptance speech.

"I look back on my career and I am proud of what I achieved and proud of the people that I've helped. I've worked with some amazing people, doing some very extraordinary things, for a very long time."

Mr Cole thanked his wife, Sarah, one of Boyup Brook's current police constables, for her love and support in his battle with PTSD. "Living with PTSD is hard, but I think the harder part is being the partner of someone with PTSD. I want to thank Sarah, as she has ridden the rollercoaster that goes through hell for a very long time and stood beside me and loved me when I hated myself."

Mr Cole said he hadn't realised how valuable it could become a part of a community like Boyup Brook.

"Being a part of this community has been a great part of helping me get better. We've made some amazing friends here, and the support that I've got through the volunteer fire brigade has been amazing ... they're a great bunch of blokes who are awesome to work with."

Mr Cole's career began in 1985. He has worked in police stations in Midland, Kalamunda, Fremantle, Nedlands, Hilton, Bridgetown, Rockingham, Mundijong, Albany and Cannington (where he became a Sergeant in 2005). He also served in police units including metro operations, south metro response group, the southern rail unit and the regional operations group.

ThinkUKnow Internet Safety?

Middle school students from Boyup Brook District High School recently participated in an presentation about internet safety.

Coordinated by the Boyup Brook Community Resource Centre, the 'ThinkUKnow' session looked at current statistics about internet use and covered topics such as digital shadows, scams, thinking about what you are posting, not sharing passwords, cyberbullying and online grooming. It also explored the concept of today's youth being digital natives who do not know life without the internet.

The session was very well received by the students with 53% likely to review their security sessions and 66% agreeing to think twice before posting or sharing on social media.

Students comments included that, as a result of the session, they will now "review people's profile accounts if they want to be a friend online", "think about what I take photos of and what I send" and "make sure to turn on privacy settings".

ThinkUKnow Australia is a partnership between the Australian Federal Police and technology companies, delivered in collaboration with State policing partners to educate youth and adults.

Sabrina To Return for the Storm

As it is the end of 2017 already, we are busy organising next year's women's day. The seventh annual "Storm in a Teacup" will be on Friday, 16 March 2018.

A big thank you has to go to the Boyup Brook Co-op for again agreeing to be our main sponsor for the day. This will be our seventh partnership with the Co-Op. We are very thankful for their support.

By popular demand, garden guru and ABC radio personality, Sabrina Hahn (pictured right), will be back to share her knowledge of plants, gardening and soil health. Make sure you have all your questions ready for Sab.

To join Sab as a speaker, we have another well-known radio personality and world renowned master pizza chef, Theo Kalogeracos, or better known as the Golden Greek. Theo's philosophy, when it comes to making pizzas, is about using quality, fresh produce and developing a taste sensation. He is far from being a traditional pizza maker and some of his pizzas are considered a little outside the box. These led to a long list of delicious and award-winning pizzas. As well as being a talented pizza maker, Theo is very charismatic and this has made him a popular and entertaining media talent and pizza demonstrator.

Together Sabrina and Theo will show us how to grow and use our own produce in our daily cooking.

As in the past, we invite and welcome a variety of stall holders for the day. Next year, we would like stallholders to bring their gazebos and set up their stalls outside the shearing shed. Ladies make sure you bring your wallets or your husband's credit cards as there is always something you NEED!

This year's painting is by local artist and Boyup Brook resident, Sandy Chambers. Not many people will be able to say they have a "Storm in a Teacup" painting by 91 year old Sandy. We will have a photo in the next Gazette – watch this space....

Enjoy your holiday season and have a wonderful 2018.

For any info or queries about the women's day, please contact Erlanda on 9765 3012 or 0429 375 609.

The St John Boyup Brook committee would like to thank the Shire of Boyup Brook for their support enabling the St John Community First Responder Program to be introduced into the Shire.

The St John Ambulance Community First Responder program is a free service that aims to get defibrillators (AED's) to cardiac arrest victims in the vital minutes before an ambulance arrives. When an emergency call is made to 000 the caller will be provided with the code to access the AED.

Mayanup and Dinninup Halls have now been fitted with AEDs, bringing the total number available on the First Responder Program in the Boyup Brook Shire to eleven.

The cost and maintenance of all equipment for the AED's is fully supplied by Boyup Brook St John Ambulance Sub Centre.

The IGA Defibrillator (AED) is now housed outside the building and is available 24/7.

Resuscitation Masks have been also been added to all AED boxes for use during CPR.

A First Aid Course is a great idea for a Christmas present, the life someone saves maybe yours.

First Aid courses can be booked through the St John Boyup Brook Office on 9765 2133 on Thursdays.

World Mission Appeal

This year, Catholic Mission's World Mission Appeal drew our attention to the twelve million forgotten farming families of Vietnam struggling to survive on less than $2 per day.

It highlights the work of dedicated missionaries such as Sister Mary and the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary as they seek to provide the local villagers of Xuan Son with clean drinking water by providing water pumps for poor farmers and critical community health services. We also focussed our attention to upgrading hospitals and churches and providing ambulances for the underprivileged in Uganda where $10,000 will purchase an ambulance.

The Catholic Missions Raffle raised $868 toward these projects and St Mary's Parish thank the community of Boyup Brook for their generous support of our Raffle held on 10th November:

1st Prize - Hamper, was won by Ticket Number-B16 Green, Barb

2nd Prize - Tupperware, donated by Kelly Winter, was won by Ticket Number -C11 Orange, Dave.

3rd Prize - Ceramic Santa, purchased from Brlevich Garden Ornaments, was won by Ticket Number C 61 Orange, C. Beagley

Boyup Brook Lions Club

Lions Clubs International purpose: to assist financially, culturally, socially and morally, the disabled, disadvantaged and infirm of the community both directly and indirectly.

The Lions Cancer van visited our town recently, and many people attended, which of course is the object of the exercise.

Rex Lee Steere kindly asked Lions Club to help run his garage sale, and the very generous man Rex, gave our Club half of the takings, a big Thank You Rex.

Our Lions Club agreed at the meeting before last, to donate $2,500 toward the local CoMHAT, money needed to employ a Mental Health worker in Boyup Brook. I am confident there will be another cheque on the way in the near future, which will allow this project to start in 2018. It's all very well for Lions to send our hard earned donations around the world, but we still need to address any issues locally.

Our Club also agreed to donate some funds for a project that the Boyup Brook Tourism Association has on their agenda. Keep your eyes wide open.

Our Club had a wonderful report from the students who were sponsored by Lions, to travel over the seas on the Leeuwin sailing ship. Oh to be young again!!!

Four members of Lions Boyup Brook attended another education weekend in Busselton, all self funded, which was interesting to say the least.

Each person had to do a public speaking exercise for three minutes, three minutes is a loooooong time, when you're trying hard not to muck up, but we all survived.

To all, please have a Happy and Safe Festive season.

Lions ethic....to be careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise, to build up and not destroy.

Garden Club Cuttings

We had a large gathering of 24 ladies, including visiting ladies from "Tone Bridge" plus four gentlemen, with apologies from Roz Fairbrass, June Lloyd and Margaret Giles, to visit Sue and Glen Mead's lovely landscape garden at Chowerup on the 24th October.

A lovely white picket fence surrounded the garden, plus the driveway on both sides. We saw white and pink "Rock roses" on the south side surrounding the fence. Large red Cordyline planted on each side of the path leading to the kitchen door, also hot lip salvias, polygala, correa and irises planted in garden beds along the veranda. At the front of the house were lovely wide steps leading to the front door with a lovely wide area of the grey "Snow in summer" a mass of the tiny white flowers.

A newly planted area on the west side had smaller daisy lime shrubs and ground covers all coming into flower. All the garden had "weed mat" laid then covered with a thick layer of mulch. An established area below the steps were many large moss covered stones carted in from the paddocks to establish a feature garden containing leptospermum and ceanothus in full bloom. A few native hibiscus could be seen dotted around the garden too.

A truly lovely garden, thank you Sue and Glen.

14th November

Twenty ladies and three gentlemen were present for a lovely afternoon at Lyn and Ted Willet's beautiful garden on the Boyup Brook-Bridgetown Road.

We sat in the very nice outdoor area where Lyn told us the history of her garden having, been planted many years ago by her grandmother, then her mother, Mrs Letchford. Lyn and Ted have been planting new gardens since 1980.

A very lush buffalo lawn greeted us at the back of the house, with many paths to wander around to see many different shrubs in flower, old type fuchsias and pretty deep red hippeastrums nestled in pots. There were also citrus trees with ripening fruit, a Twisted Willow, also a lovely old fashioned pink Honeysuckle. We were intrigued by the Nicotiana plant (Tobacco plant) with lovely white flowers and small seedlings coming up close by. All the garden had been mulched with hay recently. Many Cannas planted under trees, also white flowering daises chairs and benches placed around under trees for people to sit and admire the garden. There were many lovely sandy areas for the grandchildren to play with their toys. Ted had placed a piece of old machinery around in different areas to add features in the garden.

We all wandered back to the outdoor area to have a lovely afternoon tea.

Arrangements are made for our Christmas luncheon.

Fox Shoot in February

The annual Red Card Fox Shoot will be on the weekend of 9-11 February 2018. Put this on your calendars and make sure you have a team organised. It will be great if we can break the 500 dead foxes mark next year. Join us in achieving this goal.

For the ones who do not have a team, we will again have willing city-based shooters we can send to your farm to help you get rid of the feral animals. These people are just too happy for the opportunity to come to the country and be part of the fox shoot. They will do the spot lighting, open the gates and help you shoot, while you drive them around on your property. This way we get to cover a much bigger area of land and maybe get a bigger tally than this year.

It also gives us the opportunity to build relationships with people who fight our fight and who can help us advocate for the agricultural sector. This is just one way of getting our voice out to the people who normally do not know much about the heartaches and pains these critters can cause in our farming and natural environment.

Contact Erlanda on 9765 3012 or 0429 375 609 if you would like a few people to come to your farm.

Boyup's Baby Boomers from '58-'67 Reunite

It started with a typically quiet suggestion by Kulikup identity, Kevan Chambers, to classmate Lyn Willett, nearly a year ago - 50 years was soon to have passed since their class group completed high school in 1967. So of course it was time for the big reunion!

With some slick planning and forensic tracing of contacts and recollections, a large proportion of the former students who started school in 1958, were contacted and challenged to rally up and head to Boyup to celebrate with mates and revisit the hallowed place of learning, fun and friendship.

The reunion event took place in November with a band of 24 former students (we were once called pupils!) and many of their spouses coming together at the idyllic Golf Club, where Lyn's well-established member credentials, along with excellent hosting by some of the local club committee and catering team, ensured a successful evening.

"Many of our old classmates had not seen each other for four or five decades, so there were some exciting re-acquaintances at first," Lyn said. "More than a few of our group needed a bit of prompting to recognise their formerly youthful colleagues. However, we had all aged well!"

It wasn't long before stories of shared school day mischief, faction sports, interesting recollections of teacher idiosyncrasies and early boy-girl admirations came to the fore. Brenton Aughey recounted a yarn not known to all, about several grade 7 lads finding their way into the ceiling space to sprinkle some paper confetti through a gap above the class - after being 'turfed out' of their classroom. That one of the girls may have had a hand in this action was all but affirmed.

And what did actually happen and with who... on the school social dance night when a number of pairs of legs were spotted in a teacher's car lights below the old wooden tennis practice wall well away from the library where all students were supposed to be enjoying old time dancing under supervisory eyes!

At the reunion dinner, Lyn welcomed everyone, including Diane Clancy all the way from New Zealand and Maralyn Mutter from Melbourne, and thanked the team who had helped track down classmate contacts - specially mentioning Kaylene (Smith) and Linda (Hamersley).

Ian Ritchie then presented an intriguing set of social and demographic change data, highlighting from both national and local shire census figures how things relating to employment, education, marriage and family statistics had changed over 5 or 6 decades. It highlighted how fortunate in many ways this era of 1950's people who were born and schooled in Boyup Brook really were. Whilst many students hadn't been able to attend, they had provided short greeting messages which were read out by former 1967 Head Boy, Peter Beatty. There was also a poignant few moments as classmates who had since passed on, including sadly, much revered big Kev (Henderson) who only ten months earlier had affirmed 'nothing would keep him away from being at the reunion'.

One of the special legacies from the weekend was a professionally published booklet containing one page personal life stories of many of the class. "Ian worked very hard to draw the material together and have it ready to distribute on the night," reported Lyn.

Many a story was told, some in whispers with chuckles and a red face or two, others for all to hear as people dug into the memories of a lifetime ago in the fabulous 60's.

To top off the fantastic weekend of memories and reflections, Lyn arranged open access through and around the high school - and most of the reunion attendees reignited in their minds the snippets, events and teachers linked to the rooms, corridors and playgrounds around the now surprisingly similar school settings.

"This was a perfect weekend," said Vicki Nix. "Looking back we were very grateful for the education and childhood experiences that the BBJHS offered us and everyone's story shows what successful lives they have gone on to live."

Several couples continued to enjoy the hospitality offered by the town and stayed on to relive what the Upper Blackwood Show had to offer.

Future of the CRC

There has been some concern that the Boyup Brook Community Resource Centre is closing. The Management Committee and Staff of the CRC would like to reassure you that this is not the case.

The CRC receives a percentage of its income from a contract with the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD) which is secure until March 2019. The future of the funding beyond this date is, at this stage, uncertain with a review to be conducted of the state-wide CRC Network by the State Government in 2018, and the 2019-20 State budget forecast indicating a reduction in funding for the Network.

However, our CRC is more than a DPIRD contract. We are a Bendigo Bank Agency, Access Point for the Department of Human Services, produce The Boyup Gazette, deliver contracts on behalf of other organisations, provide activities, events and services that are needed, wanted and valued by our community. The CRC continues to build strong partnerships with many stakeholders, including Government, community sector agencies, business, other not-for-profits, community groups and individuals. These relationships ensure we have access to, and are meeting the needs of the Boyup Brook community.

To see the range of activities that the CRC was involved with in 2016/17, please take a look at our Annual Report, featured on our website: www.boyupbrook.crc.net.au/what-we-do

HOW CAN YOU HELP TO SECURE THE CRC'S FUTURE?

To show your support of the CRC, we would love you to fill out one (or more) of our promotional postcards as part of a state-wide Network campaign. We will post them off to Members of Parliament to share your messages and stories of what the CRC means to you and the Boyup Brook community. Call in to the CRC to collect yours today. You can also post messages of support on our Facebook page or Twitter accounts and use the hashtags: #CRC #community #MoreThanASmartPhone #WACRN. Or, please come along to our activities, events, use our services, provide us with feedback and continue to let us know how we can help you.

CRC Petition presented in Parliament—21 Nov

Sincere gratitude to everyone who signed the petition stating your support for the Community Resource Centres. I am a strong supporter of the CRCs and value the wide variety of services they provide. A 40% cut to their funding will have a massive impact on their ability to effectively deliver services that are not available anywhere else in our communities. The Nationals WA presented petitions in Parliament and will continue to fight for on-going funding.

Emergency Services Volunteer Fuel card—value halved

The McGowan Government has halved the value of the Emergency Services Volunteer Fuel Card reducing it to $1000 per organisation. I find it incomprehensible that the new government would cut anything that supports regional volunteers. This reduction is a slap in the face to the over 900 regional volunteer emergency service organisations whose volunteers are standing ready to respond to emergency situations. You have my support and admiration.

RAC South West Emergency Rescue Helicopter—Success

Thank you to the thousands of people who signed the petition to ensure on-going funding for the SW Emergency Rescue Helicopter. Minister for Emergency Services, Fran Logan initially stated that it would be reviewed in the mid-year budget, however the timing was brought forward to November and it has now been announced that the funding is secured. This is a direct result of your support and standing up for appropriate services in regional WA.

Greenbushes Community Shed— Opening 8 Nov

Congratulations to everyone involved in the building of the Greenbushes Community Shed. It is wonderful to see these communal facilities take shape and hearing the contributions they make to their local community. Well done to all involved.

WA Regional Small Business Award Winners

Congratulations Regional Small Business Award category winners— Arrows in Margaret River, the Margaret River Hemp Co and Poornarti Aboriginal Tours

Small businesses play a significant role in the regions and are a major employer. It is vital we support our local small businesses, so try to Shop Local for Christmas.

Christmas Greetings

December is here already and the festive season is just around the corner. I extend my very best wishes to you and your family for a happy and safe Christmas and New Year.

Household Battery Recycling

Australians use thousands of tonnes of batteries every year, most of which end up in landfill where the metals can leak and contaminate soil and groundwater.

Why Recycle Batteries?

- It saves energy – Buying rechargeable batteries is the best way to reduce battery waste. Each battery can be recharged up to 1000 times, saving you money and reducing pollution and the energy that goes into making discarded batteries.
- It reduces environmental impacts – Household batteries contain toxic metals such as cadmium, mercury and lead, which can be harmful to the environment when disposed of to landfill.
- It saves resources – Batteries are mainly made from non-renewable based resources. Recycling existing batteries helps reduce the need to use these resources.
- It reduces waste going to landfill – Recycling batteries diverts them from landfill where they are unable to break down. Used rechargeable batteries are classified as a hazardous waste under the Hazardous Waste Act 1989. This means that they should not be disposed of with general household waste.

Drop off the battery when it is completely discharged – if you are not sure, cover the poles of the battery with a piece of sticky tape. The Blackwood Basin Group office is open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday 8.30am to 3.30pm.

Work on the blacksmith building is now well on the way and we hope to have the display opened to the public in the very near future. The timber slabs have been placed on the walls.

The museum committee thank the kindness of community for the support at our fundraising raffles over the past eighteen months to enable volunteers to maintain and continue with the work.

Something for all the farmers in the community, is your fertilisers stored correctly! Take note of the jute bags!

Biosecurity Group Takes the Lead

Blackwood Biosecurity Inc is taking the lead in a new era in community based control of declared plant and animal pests in the South West.

With seed funds from Royalties for Regions and support from the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD), Blackwood Biosecurity Inc. has evolved into a progressive South West Biosecurity Group assisting local communities in declared pest control.

Blackwood Biosecurity Inc. is the Recognised Biosecurity Group (RBG) to operate in the Shires of Bridgetown-Greenbushes, Boyup Brook, West Arthur, Nannup and Donnybrook-Bridgetown South (localities of Balingup, Mullalyup, Grimwade, Southampton and Wilga West). It is an incorporated, not for profit group managed by a voluntary committee of representatives from all five Shires.

The group is now ready to take on bigger, broader projects and become financially independent through the raising of a Declared Pest Rate (DPR). Blackwood Biosecurity thanks all who attended their 2017 Annual General Meeting and approved their 2018/19 Operational Plan and Budget and recommended the raising of a flat $40 rate on freehold land in town sites (residential) and $50 on freehold land in rural in the five shires in which they are recognised.

The modest pest rate is calculated on an annual operational plan with pests prioritised by the community. The 2018/19 Plan focusses on Feral Pigs, Foxes and Wild Rabbits, Narrow Leaf Cottonbush, Paterson's Curse, Bridal Creeper, Cape Tulip and Cleavers.

Under the Biosecurity and Agricultural Management Act (2007) landholders have a responsibility to control Declared Pests on their land. However, many of these pests are difficult and expensive to control, and landholders don't always have the capacity to do so.

In 2018/19 Blackwood Biosecurity will continue to train and upskill landholders as well as provide practical onsite and on farm assistance, free and subsidised equipment, poisons and chemicals, work by Licensed Contractors and the extension of their Field Operator network. Pest populations and locations will be mapped to form a baseline for future monitoring and control.

The W.A. Government (the only State Government to do so) will support this work by matching rate funds on a dollar for dollar basis for biosecurity control. The system will provide communities with guaranteed annual funds to address priority pests of their choice.

Local Government is not impacted or involved in the rate which is handled by the Office of State Revenue which issues assessment notices and collects Declared Pest Rates on behalf of the Director General, DPIRD. Funds can only be used on Declared Species and only spent in the area in which they have been collected and in accordance with Blackwood Biosecurity's Operational Plan.

Not all ratepayers will be directly impacted by focus pests during each operational year, however, their contribution will enhance controls elsewhere as insurance to keep them pest free, with their community resourced and ready to address biosecurity threats as they arise.

Biosecurity control is most effective when everyone works together in a strategic, co-ordinated approach across the whole of the landscape. Everyone needs to be involved and everyone needs to be resourced and supported. Blackwood Biosecurity will work with Agencies, Industry and other stakeholders, regardless of land tenure, to support this community effort.

Dog High Jump Action

Scaling a two-metre vertical wall, won local sheepdog, Bill, a $500 first prize in this year's Dinninup Show Dog High Jump.

Bill, owned by Daniel Bleechmore, and three other dogs, contested this year's event and their efforts were handsomely rewarded thanks to the generosity of event sponsors.

Zoe, owned by Bobby-Lea Miller, took out the small dog jump section, winning $200 to fund some serious pooch pampering. Zoe's performance was a great crowd pleaser and we encourage all small dog owners to consider entering the event for the 100th Dinninup Show in 2018.

This year, the Boyup Brook Co-op sponsored the $500 'Open' section winner's prize, continuing the Co-op's long tradition of supporting the community in the Boyup district.

"Congratulations to Bill for the massive 2.05 metre winning jump," said Co-op manager Travis Reid.

"The Co-op recognises that the dog high jump is a great crowd-pleaser each year at the Dinninup Show and hope next year's event will attract even more contestants."

Zoe's short-legged leap won her a $200 prize kindly donated by local shearing contractors, Johansen Shearing.

Rylington Park donated $100 to reward one of the up-and-coming high jumpers as a show of support for the amazing working dogs in this district. With a range of courses on offer at Rylington Park to further develop the skills of dog handlers, the Rylington Park committee and management also showed strong support for the event.

Making the event worthwhile for other competitors were other sponsors including Bleechmore Transport, the Kojonup Vet Hospital, Porky Biluta, Tasman Shearing and Dalton Transport.

Organiser Jen Staniforth-Smith thanks all of the generous sponsors, event MC Kirsten Skraha and local farmer Sally Thompson for making sure that even the jump set-up was good fun.

Thanks also to the other competitors - Matt Cole and Gypsy, local shearing team member Ri with Luna, Anita from Donnybrook with Clancy, and BBDHS student Daniel McKenna with Kelly.

Art and Craft on Show

Entries in Recycling Waste, Card making, Pottery/Ceramics and Miniature work were very well represented in the Craft section.

Recycling from waste material has really grown and expanded to useful and stylish pieces of artwork. In fact, the Most Outstanding Exhibit was a reupholstered chair from a blanket done by Carina Wilson.

Home Industries was also well patronised especially in needlework with 27 entries and overall there were 63 entries in this section. The Most Outstanding Exhibit was an embroidered afternoon tea cloth done by Mrs Audrey Jackson.

The President's Trophy for Most Points over both sections was another feature in Home Industries, showing past Most Outstanding Awards from 1993 to the 2017 show. Twenty of the 25 exhibits came to the show. We broke this into four groups:

- Cross stitching won by Carly Burton's "Horse";
- Dress making won by Rhonda Parkers Christening gown;
- Embroidery/Crochet won by the Late Annie Forrest and
- Patchwork won by Margaret Dowey

The overall winner of the Most Outstanding work was Mrs Annie Forrest with her crochet afternoon tea cloth in 1993, and runner up was Mrs Audrey Jackson with her embroidered afternoon tea cloth this year. Mrs Jackson said it took 50 years to complete - so no one is ever too old or too late to enter.

Thank you and well done to all who participated, your entries make for a good show and inspire others.

The CRAFT HUT

Boomerang bags are still in need of helpers to do a bit of sewing. All the bags we have put into the box at IGA have now been taken. That's great that the community are making use of these bags. If you think about it, could you please bring them back for others use. The idea is if you forget your own non-plastic bags, you borrow and then return it on your return. That way everyone gets to use them instead of plastic.

The Show

The Dinninup Show is done and dusted and all our members did well, taking out many prizes. The standard of craft was very high this year.

With Christmas approaching we are organising another Christmas stall and raffle (the ever popular 'scratchy' raffle). This will be on Friday 8 December. Come and support us and buy some Christmas ornaments, cakes, cards or plants and jams.

School Holidays

The Craft Hut is planning to run ceramics for kids during January for any families still around. We will be operating on Wednesdays from 10am till around 3pm. There will be a nominal fee charged to cover the cost of materials. If kids want to come along they need to be accompanied by an adult.

For bookings call Mary-Anne Brlevich on 9765 1149.

Pause of Remembrance

As a small crowd gathered at the Boyup Brook War Memorial at 11am on Saturday, November 11, Boyup Brook RSL Sub-Branch President, Colin Hales said, "Today is not just another day. Today marks the 99th anniversary of the day and hour that the guns finally fell silent on the Western Front after more than four years of fighting in World War I."

Remembrance Day in Boyup Brook was a simple, but solemn occasion with attendees remembering the tragedy of World War I, and many other conflicts and peace keeping missions that followed, also paying tribute to the members of the Australian Defence Force who have, and continue to serve our country.

BOYUP BROOK

VALE Rose Dickson (8/10/1952 – 12/10/2017)

Rose was born in Manjimup in 1952 to loving parents Robert and Kathleen Muir. Two years later her sister Maxine was born.

At this time the Family were living on a small farm 16 miles east of Manjimup, where Mr Muir farmed sheep to feed the family. Rose and Maxine often helped their father milk the cows, (twice daily) on their grandfather's property, just down the road.

When Rose was eight years old, the family became (townies), when they moved to number 23 Highfield Street Manjimup. The Muir family often holidayed in Peaceful Bay and stayed at their hut on Third Avenue.

It was here where Rose first met, and was swept off her feet by Harvey Dickson. Rose being so young at the time (13 to be precise) and Harvey being 19, her parents were sceptical of this wild young man's intentions. As it goes with young love they started going steady, and after four years they were married, and when Rose had just turned eighteen, they had their first daughter Tammy.

Rose was now living at Easington Farm in Boyup Brook with Harvey and her Mother in Law. Over the next four years Rose and Harvey had two more daughters, Vicky and Kerry. Rose was a busy young Mum raising young girls and helping with all farm work. It has been said that Rose was the best truck driver at hay carting time, even better than the men. After several years Rose and Harvey decided they'd have another child and try for a son. So, five years after Kerry, came.... another girl! Rose said to Harvey, "Let's still call her Shane".

Rose loved gardening and over time had established a magnificent garden right around the Dickson homestead. Rose loved looking after her donkeys, goats, kangaroos, emus and beloved Shetland pony. For many years, Rose and Harvey grew an amazing massive vegetable garden which produced all the goodies. They farmed their own sheep, pigs, chooks and ducks and ate them all. Rose always provided the best home cooked meals and smokos at shearing and hay carting time (as well as driving the truck).

Not only did Rose care for her family, but had a soft spot for anyone who was in trouble and in need of help. Rose was always generous with her whole heart. Rose was willing to help anyone from all walks of life without judgment. The Dickson home was often, also home for others less fortunate, who in return for Rose's kindness helped around the house and farm.

When Shane started school in 1986 Rose decided she would start working. So first of all, she went out and did some house cleaning. Rose also gained employment at Sambell's store working in the deli and the fruit and veg department. Rose also dabbled in retail fashion in Boyup Brooks own Fashion House. If you needed a new outfit or pair of shoes, Rose was the one to see. Rose was always honest and if it didn't look good on you she'd say so. Rose worked at the Top Deli for a period of time while also volunteering at the Citizens lodge. Eventually Rose was on the payroll at the Lodge and happily worked there looking after the Oldies for eight or so years.

Rose was an active member of the Boyup Brook Lions Club for sixteen years. Her contributions to the club were broadly recognised.

In recent years Rose also worked for the Boyup Brook Shire and joined the road works crew. Rose felt at ease on the roller and being the stop/go girl wasn't beyond her. When Rose left the road crew and took on the transfer station she was in her element. Rose loved greeting members of the community, having a chat and helping with their recycling. While working at the transfer station Rose started the fantastic Tip shop which was a huge success.

Rose Dickson's love of country music was also a driving force in her life. This all started way back in 1967 with a private Chad Morgan show held in the barn here on Dickson's farm. Rose was one of an unofficial club, The Black Hats of Boyup Brook. Rose was a founding member of the Boyup Brook Country Music Club having their inaugural meeting April of 1979. The club enjoyed successful shows of the likes of Slim Dusty, Rick and Thel Carey and Ernie Bridge just to name a few. Cabarets were held in the Boyup Brook Town hall. Memories were made as families enjoyed great live music, dancing and having a good time among friends. In the early 80's Rose would travel to the town of Yornup and take part of their radio show 6BY and talk about country music and play her favourite songs. The very first Country Music Awards held at the Boyup Brook Town Oval happened in 1986. For Rose, Harvey and other club members this was a great annual event which is still successful today.

Rose and Harvey held their own annual show in their garden, until growing numbers forced the party into the machinery shed. Over time the farm became less of a farm and morphed into an established Country Music Entertainment Centre. Up to 12 shows a year at one stage were being organised by Rose and her band of helpers. 2002 marked the first Harvey Dickson's Rodeo. Rose worked hard every year to ensure the whole weekend ran smoothly. Yes, everything you see here was created by Harvey, but would have been unattainable without the loving support of his wife Rose. It was a team effort.

Rose was a natural born leader with great organisation skills.

Merry Christmas to all,

I would like to say a big thankyou to all our wonderful volunteers who keep the Tourist centre running smoothly all year round. Your knowledge and time is greatly appreciated.

Long Service

Recently we said goodbye to Jennifer Peaty who has contributed nineteen years of dedicated service to our Visitor Centre as a volunteer on the desk. A mammoth effort and greatly appreciated. Thankyou Jennifer, your willing presence will be missed by the Tourism Association and visitors alike. We wish you well in your retirement from our roster.

'Art on Abel' was held on Saturday 11 and Sunday 12 November, as part of the annual Blooming Wild Festival that celebrates landscapes and flora in the Southern Forest and Valleys over the Spring season. While it felt more like summer, the weekend was a great success with fabulous art, sculptures, handmade goodies, local products and ephemeral artworks on display - thanks to the many talented artists and makers we are very privileged to have in our region.

Guided wildflower walks with Shirley and Mavis were on offer; Sue White demonstrated beautiful machine embroidery and there were book signings by local children's author, Carole Forrest. Signed copies of 'Have You Had A Sore Bum?' are available at the Visitor Centre now but be quick as they have been very popular.

Thank you to all who participated in this event and to all the visitors who supported us, and consequently, our local artists, makers and producers.

Be Still and Know..... God

If Christ had not come

'Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.' John 1:29

Scholars disagree as to the exact date of Christ's birth. Nor do they know for certain that the church of the Nativity, visited every day by pilgrims in Bethlehem, is the exact location of His birth. Nor can any of us comprehend how, by the Holy Spirit, a virgin girl could conceive a child.

But here's the good news: you don't have to know when, where, or how Jesus was born, you just need to know why. 'For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him, shall not perish, but have eternal life.' (John 3:16)

Only four things matter:

1. If Christ had not come, God would be unknown to us.
2. If Christ had not come, our sins would be unforgiven. The name Jesus means 'Jehovah saves.' John the Baptist called Him 'the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world'.
3. If Christ had not come, our prayers would be unanswered. In Bible days you needed a priest to petition God on your behalf. And Jesus is our High Priest who 'understands our weaknesses, for He faced all of the same testings we do, yet He did not sin. So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive His mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most.' (Hebrews 4:15-16)

4. If Christ had not come the first time, we would have no assurance that He will come the second time and catch us away to Heaven to be with Himself.

Tennis Thriving in New Season

It has been a fantastic start to the 2017/18 Season with many new and old faces enjoying a hit of tennis, great food and refreshments afterwards.

The official opening of the season was conducted by Mrs June Lloyd and Life Member, John Eddy who hit the first balls on November 4. The day was sponsored by the Treehouse Coffee Lounge and the Boyup Brook Hotel with the winners being Carmel Page and Rance Dorrington, and runners up were Brooke Nield, Geoff Whistler and Neil Titchmarsh.

The following week was the annual Smash Cancer day. This year funds were raised for the 'Love Your Sister' Foundation which started as a breast cancer advocacy group, but now fights all cancers and spreads awareness of the disease that took co-founder Connie Johnson's life earlier this year. Lizzie Twigg spoke on behalf of cancer survivors and everyone touched by cancer, and thanked everyone for their donations made on the day. The day was sponsored by the Boyup Brook Pharmacy and the winners were Craig Nield, Rance Dorrington, Eric Biddle, Carmel Page, Lizzie Twigg and Kate Turner.

There was a fabulous turn out for social tennis on November 18 and the Tennis Club would like to wish former member Ben Thompson a very happy 21st birthday, which was celebrated at the Club that night.

A strong field competed in the first Championship event for the year on November 25 with the Mixed Doubles, sponsored by IPG Advisors. In a knockout draw, there was plenty of good tennis played throughout the afternoon. The final was played between Rance and Naomi Dorrington and Rick Twigg and Sharon Nield, with the Dorrington's taking the match in two sets.

Junior tennis has great numbers again the year with three sessions running on Thursday afternoons. Our juniors are very fortunate to have access to Andrew 'Woody' Woodward coaching them as part of the membership fee.

The offer of free adult coaching has also been very popular with between nine and twelve members coming along to improve their tennis each Thursday from 1pm.

And congratulations to junior member Brooke Nield who was a member of the winning South West girls team who won the A division of the Women in Tennis Foundation Cup held in Bunbury at the beginning of November. Brooke also made the quarter finals in the singles event.

Winners of the early membership draw were:

Week 1- Sharon Nield

Week 2- Uren Family

Week 3- Thompson Family

Coming up in December:

Saturday 2nd Social tennis

Thursday 7th Junior & adult coaching (last one for 2017)

Saturday 9th & 16th Social tennis

Saturday 23rd Op Shop Cup - Christmas Theme
(sponsored by Boyup Brook IGA)

Ladies "Come & Try" Clay Target Shooting

Club Captain Stu Uren attended a Coaching course in July and after talking to State Coaching Director Christine Alexander, came up with the idea of holding a 'Ladies Come and Try Day'.

The Boyup Brook community got behind the project with a great number of sponsors for morning and afternoon teas (Treehouse Café), Lunches (Norton's BP Service Station), refreshments and nibbles afterwards (Boyup Brook Hotel and IGA), Sportsmarine, The Gun Store, T&M Heavy Mechanical and Boyup Brook Concrete (Ammo) and "Spot" prizes were supplied by Boyup Brook Tyre Service, Bridgetown Hotel, Lisa's Beauty Service, Boyup Brook Post Office, Cherylton Farms. Atherton Transport, Landmark Wools and Bunge Australia provided funding to cover the additional targets not covered by the WACTA Coaching stock. DSR Southwest (Jo Gibellini) also provided funding for the initiative under a local Community Grant.

There were three other very important ladies to thank who attended as Mentors - Deanne Blake (Denmark), Leonie Banks (Kojonup) and Sarah Robertson (Boyup Brook). Thank you ladies as you really made the difference. Coaches assisting were Stu Uren, Rod Graham and Christine Alexander. So in essence there were six instructors for a final number of 35 ladies.

The ladies were instructed prior to going out on the layouts about "firearm awareness" including rifles, shotguns, cartridges and shotgun shell components.

From there it was then showing the ladies all about shotgun shooting (mounting, stance and where to look).

Finally it was out to the tracks for demonstrations (DTL & Skeet) then to the real moment with the ladies undertaking Clay Target shooting.

At the end of the day, all hit targets with one of the three left handers converting over to right to see and hit targets. Lime fluoro or white targets were used as prize winning targets and quite a few were hit, so the rewards were reaped. All the ladies had a great time and finished off with refreshments and nibbles.

Thank you especially to the Mentors, Coaches and Boyup club members Jamie, Stu, Wayde and Dave that came out to ensure the day went smoothly.

The Club has already signed up a new lady member with the promise of more joining whilst others are keen to come back and try again.

For further information, contact Stu Uren (0438 793 562) or Grant Robertson (0427 673 043).
